

SASCON 2027

SUB-SAHARAN AFRICA SECURITY
CONFERENCE

Practical information

One printable sheet for delegates. Only confirmed facts appear here; everything not yet confirmed says so plainly rather than guessing.

Dates and location

SASCON 2027, the Sub-Saharan Africa Security Conference, runs 20 to 21 July 2027 in Accra, Ghana.

The venue will be published here once it is confirmed.

Daily times

Daily opening times, registration desk hours and badge collection arrangements will be published here once the venue is confirmed and the programme is locked. Until then, the schedule at a glance shows the shape of each day.

Entering Ghana

Ghana's entry regime changed on 25 May 2026: 25 May 2026. Visa on arrival discontinued. ECOWAS and AES visa-free with no ETA. Free ETA for other qualifying states. eVisa from USD 260 single entry.

Yellow fever vaccination: Mandatory from 9 months, checked at port of entry. Carry your certificate whatever its issue date.

Find your own route, the fee schedule and the invitation letter procedure on the entry requirements page, which carries its own verification date.

Getting there

Airport arrival details, including which terminal you land at, are on the arrival guide.

Vetted SASCON transfer arrangements, and an honest account of Accra traffic from a named and dated source, will be published here once confirmed. This sheet will not hand you a guessed journey time. For ride-hailing, money, connectivity and power, see the arrival guide.

Accommodation

A hotel block with verified rates will be published here and on the arrival guide once it is confirmed.

SASCON works with no booking agency for this event. Any call or email offering SASCON accommodation through an agency is fraudulent. Book only through the channels published on this site.

Contacts

Named contacts, including the visa desk with one email address, one phone number and a stated response time, will be published here once confirmed. Until then, enquiries reach the organising committee through the contact page.
